Boutique Evie beading to a different tune

Boutique Evie has been given a new life thanks to a group of dedicated volunteers and residents at Donald Berman Maimonides known as the Bead Buddies. They create beautiful jewellery out of beads and sell their wares once a week at Boutique Evie. Monies raised support the Bead Buddies and other Art Therapy programs at the Centre.

“It is like a marketplace of craftspeople that brings the community together,” says Art Therapist Sondra Goldman.

Boutique Evie is an on-site shop in Donald Berman Maimonides. It was named in honour of its brainchild Evie Stroller who was an active volunteer at the Centre in 2000 when her husband, movie producer Lou Stroller was working on a film in Montreal.

This new use for the shop has invigorated the space and given residents and visitors something to look forward to every Thursday afternoon.

On our cover

Julien Bruneau from National Bank Private Banking 1859, Donald Berman Maimonides Battle of the Bands' Presentation Sponsor with event co-chairs Freddie Naimer, Gerry Kandestin and Rob Hirscheimer along with this year's guest performer Steven Page, a recent inductee into the Canadian Music Hall of Fame with his former band, the Barenaked Ladies.

Inset

It's official! Jewish Eldercare Centre is now Donald Berman Jewish Eldercare thanks to a transformative gift from the Donald Berman Foundation. See story on p-3.

It's official! Donald Berman Jewish Eldercare is our new name

We are proud to officially change the name of Jewish Eldercare to Donald Berman Jewish Eldercare in honour of a transformative gift from the Donald Berman Foundation. This single largest gift in the history of the 320-bed long-term care centre will be used in a meaningful way to make a difference in the lives of our residents.

The arduous task of rebranding has begun and will continue over the next six months. We now have a new logo, new signage and new letterhead just to name a few.

On October 9, 2018, members of the board of Trustees of the Donald Berman Foundation as well as Donald Berman Jewish Eldercare Foundation Board members and staff attended a L'Chaim and ribbon cutting to officially inaugurate the new name. The Donald Berman name and legacy will now figure prominently on two of our Jewish long-term care centres in Montreal.

In 2011, Donald Berman Maimonides received a generous gift from the Donald Berman Foundation in honour of the tenth anniversary of Mr. Berman's passing. We are incredibly grateful to the Donald Berman Foundation for making such a profound difference in the lives of our residents.

Donald Berman Jewish Eldercare and Donald Berman Maimonides are member institutions of CIUSSS West-Central Montreal.

1. The Official ribbon cutting: Donald Berman Jewish Eldercare President Rory Olson, Donald Berman Jewish Eldercare Foundation Director Karen Flam, Director of the Support Program for the Autonomy of Seniors (SAPA) for CIUSSS West Central Montreal Barbra Gold, Donald Berman Foundation Board members Neil Stein, David Muller, Jeff Robillard and CIUSSS West-Central Montreal Board President Alan Maislin.
2. A toast from Barbra Gold. L'Chaim!
3. Donald Berman Foundation Trustees David Muller and Neil Stein
4. Donald Berman Foundation trustee Jeff Robillard with Past Donald Berman Jewish Eldercare Foundation President Brad Steinmetz
5. Donald Berman Jewish Eldercare Foundation President Rory Olson with Past Donald Berman Jewish Eldercare Foundation President Danny Baum
6. Foundation Board member Fred Wenger and Past DBJ Foundation President Syd Gartner

Battle of the Bands Sweet Sixteen: We went barenaked

To celebrate our sweet sixteen, the Donald Berman Maimonides Battle of the Bands presented by National Bank Private Banking 1859 went barenaked with special guest Steven Page formerly of the Barenaked Ladies. Four local bands made up of well-known Montreal entrepreneurs, lawyers and doctors were joined by Steven Page on stage each night at MTelus (formerly known as Metropolis) on December 4th and 5th, 2018.

The hottest ticket in town featured 8 acts and one rock n' roll legend belting it out for a great cause. The $370,000 raised will fund the vital ongoing Cultural and Quality of Life programs that make our centre such a wonderful place for our residents to live. These include our award-winning iPod music program, Moment in Time wish fulfillment experiences and many leisure activities.

Andy Nulman hosted the show, with a special ode to our sponsors. The ever-popular auction featured fantasy items such as tickets to the Grammys, luxury trips and signed guitars and exclusive meet-and-greets with Steven Page. Back by popular demand, we rolled out the red carpet for our sponsors and special guests in the Delmar VIP Lounge.

Thank you to all the committee members and generous volunteers who donated countless hours of their time for the planning and execution of the event.

An extra special thank you to co-chairs Freddie Naimer, Gerry Kandestin and newcomer Rob Hirscheimer for their dedication to this event.

Check out our website at www.donaldbermanmaimonides.net to see the videos on our Youtube channel, and about 1000 pictures on Flickr. Follow us on Facebook @Maimonides Battle of the Bands and NEW this year, we launched an Instagram page: @dbmbattle.

A special thank you to the band members who gave so generously of their time and brought their A-game to the event. ▼

Quality of Care = Quality of Life

Understanding why the 'Micro-Milieu' concept works in long-term care

The provincial government has mandated all long-term care centers in the province to adopt the 'micro-milieu' concept which groups residents on nursing units with others having similar physical, psychological or emotional conditions. Donald Berman Maimonides (DBM) has been ahead of its time, having used this system for over 30 years.

One of the floors at DBM is for residents who need comfort care at the end of their lives. These residents tend to be bed-ridden, non-verbal and respond to touch or smells. "On this floor, we do a lot of hand massages or aromatherapy instead of bingo and bowling. Activities are tailored to meet the resident's needs. Staff can also get the pertinent training to help the residents on their unit," says Rosalie Dion, Assistant to the Director of the Support Program for the Autonomy of Seniors in CIUSSS-West Central Montreal of which DBM and Donald Berman Jewish Eldercare (DBJ) are member institutions.

The micro-milieu concept has been used at DBJ for the last 10 years. In recent years, residents have been arriving to long-term care centers sicker and more depleted than ever before. "This is an opportunity for us to look at what we are doing and adapt to the changing needs of our residents. Maybe we need more beds for those with complex issues. Maybe we need to refine the floor mandates already in place to better meet the needs of our future clients," adds Dion.

"This is an opportunity for us to look at what we are doing and adapt to the changing needs of our residents."

ROSALIE DION ASSISTANT TO THE DIRECTOR OF THE SUPPORT PROGRAM FOR THE AUTONOMY OF SENIORS IN CIUSSS-WEST CENTRAL MONTREAL

At DBM, there is a unit for residents who have challenging behaviors related to dementia like aggression and those who like to wander into other resident's rooms or who tend to scream. "This can be very disturbing for some residents that don't have cognitive deficits," says Dion, adding, "It's important to choose the right neighbors so that our residents' quality of life is not affected."

A change in a resident's medical condition may necessitate a move to another floor. This can be very hard for families as it often means the person's health has deteriorated. The goal, however, is always to best meet the resident's needs by having them on a floor with properly-trained staff who understand their complexities and can provide activities that are tailored to them. "It helps provide optimum care," says Dion.

Plans are to put the micro-milieu concept in place at all long-term care sites within our CIUSSS.

The Auxiliaries honoured

The Auxiliaries of Donald Berman Maimonides and the newly named Donald Berman Jewish Eldercare were honoured with the Outstanding Service Award at the Annual general Meetings of the Corporations and Foundations.

These groups of dedicated volunteer women co-ordinated Meals on Wheels, ran Coffee Shops and Gift Shops, organized highly successful galas and Bridge luncheons, launched Book Clubs and cultural outings and even held events in Florida during the winter season. These fundraising efforts enabled the Centres to purchase state-of-the-art equipment to meet a wide range of resident needs. At Donald Berman Maimonides this included pressure reducing mattresses, living rooms on individual pavilions, busses for outings and a special fund for residents in need. At Donald Berman Jewish Eldercare the Auxiliary supported and funded the Therapeutic Garden beside the Kastner Pavilion, the welcome program and the Snoezelen Room and mobile cart.

Sadly, Auxiliaries throughout the world have struggled. Membership has declined resulting in the closure of both our Auxiliaries.

The legacy of the Auxiliaries remains strong. The Foundation is continuing vital Auxiliary projects including the Dental Hygienist program, the Chanukat Habayit welcome flower gifts, the Sunshine Fund, the buses for outings and weekly visits to local shopping malls.

We remain eternally grateful to the generations of women who created and nurtured these programs and made a tangible and lasting difference in the lives of our residents for over 50 years.

Barbra Gold

Congratulations!

Barbra Gold, Director of the Support program for the Autonomy of Seniors in CIUSSS West-Central Montreal, took home the 2019 Dr. Herbert Shore Award from the Association of Jewish Aging Services (AJAS). This is the top award given by this North American Association and is presented to the outstanding executive professional who best exemplifies the goals and ideals of AJAS and service to Jewish older adults. Barbra was the first Canadian in the history of AJAS to be the organization's Board Chair from 2009-2011. Donald Berman

Maimonides and Donald Berman Jewish Eldercare are blessed to count Barbra as our remarkable leader. For over 25 years, she has devoted herself to the most vulnerable members of our community and has paved a bright and visionary path to the future.

"Those of us who are fortunate to work closely with Barbra are lucky to have her. Even more fortunate are the seniors in our community for whom she continues to ensure the highest quality of life," says Dr. Lawrence Rosenberg, President and CEO of CIUSSS West Central Montreal." Congratulations on this well-deserved honour!

Happy Birthday!

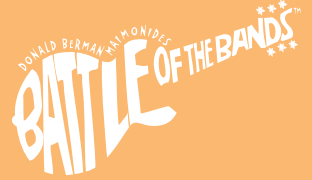

Anita Ein Shapiro, a resident at Donald Berman Jewish Eldercare (DBJ), recently celebrated her 100th birthday. "Anita has donated over 100 works of art through the Art for Healing Foundation to various Montreal healthcare institutions. In 2012, when she was still living at home, she donated 25 works of art to DBJ. She is now surrounded by the beauty of her own artwork. How wonderful that in her final years, she is giving tours of her collection to other residents," says Earl Pinchuk, Founder of the Art for Healing Foundation.

The Battle love continues...

TRIPS OF A LIFETIME FOR BATTLE AUCTION WINNERS

Siblings Jason and Randi Katz enjoyed great seats at the Lady Gaga show and weekend in Las Vegas.

Sandy Fischel and Sheldon Lubin attended the Grammy Awards and after party in L.A.

"What a night!! We had a blast! Met great people, listened to amazing music and over all blessed to have been to such a fantastic event and all because of Maimonides. So grateful," said Sheldon.

HALL OF FAME

Rob Hirscheimer and Larry Nachshen were recently inducted into the Donald Berman Maimonides Battle of the Bands Hall of Fame in the Performer and Builder Categories respectively. They join an esteemed group of loyal Battle innovators recognized for their significant contribution to the energy and evolution of this popular event.

Left: Battle co-chair Freddie Naimer with Hall of Fame inductee and 2018 Battle co-chair Rob Hirscheimer.

Right: Fellow Battle Hall of Famer and Past Foundation President Freddie Naimer welcomes new inductee Larry Nachshen who has attended every Battle of the Bands since its inception and is always the first to purchase a table.

GUITAR WINNERS

Guitars signed by Steven Page were popular at this year's DBM Battle of the Bands. Six guitars were auctioned off over the two-night event. Purchasing a guitar was the only way to get to go backstage and have a meet and greet with the former member of the Barenaked Ladies. Those who bought the guitar were able to bring their guests for the photo.
