If you or a family member is experiencing distress...

A team of professionals and specialized care can help.

Louise Granofsky
Psychosocial Oncology Program at the Jewish General Hospital

514-340-8222 ext. 3223

Our Mission

Our mission is to alleviate patients’ and families’ emotional distress at all stages of the cancer experience. As members of an interdisciplinary team, we integrate excellence in professional practice, teaching, training and research based on a biopsychosocial approach to cancer care.

Who We Are

The members of LG-POP are professionals who provide specialized services that are an integral part of cancer care through all stages of the cancer experience.

- Psychologists
- Social Workers
- Nurses
- Psychiatrists
- Chaplains
- Sex Therapists
- Couple & Family Therapists

Services Provided

- Psychological interventions (therapy, hypnosis for symptom management)
- Assessments and interventions for in and out patients
- Psychiatric assessment and treatment, including pharmacotherapy
- Individual, couple & family therapy interventions
- Crisis intervention

Services Provided cont’d

- Assistance with navigating a complex health system
- Supportive counselling
- Spiritual counselling
- Grief counseling
- Linking patient and family to community resources
- Discharge planning (from the hospital)
- Opportunities to participate in research

You may be referred by ...

✓ Any allied health care professional or you can call us directly

Tel: 514 340-8222 ext. 3223
Fax: 514 340-7967
Email: lgpop@jgh.mcgill.ca
Room E-768

Segal Cancer Centre | Jewish General Hospital
3755 Côte-Sainte-Catherine Rd.,
Montreal, QC H3T 1E2

jgh.ca